

Re H. Clower

On September 22nd, 1926 Operative proceeded to 118 Goodrich Street, Astoria, L.I., at 7 A.M., noted the name of Hamorzsky in door bell of Apartment 1 A. Held premises under observation until 12 noon. Up to that time subject was not seen to leave the premises.

Operative then proceeded to 245 East 80th Street Manhattan, saw a man who resembles the subject arrive at the place about 1 P.M. then left premises at 2:50 P.M., walked to 79th Street and first Avenue, Standard Bank, left bank for plant at 3:30 P.M. subject did not leave plant again and operative discontinued at 5:30 P.M. to resume work again at 7:30 P.M.

At 2:P.M. a machine bearing license number 2 Y 3096 stopped in front of the premises a man entered and remained until 2:30 P.M. and then drove away.

At 7:30 P.M. Operative proceeded to the Old Faith Mission 204 East 79th Street a sign outside the Mission indicated that there would be no services Wednesday Evening.

Operative proceeded to 245 East 80th Street and subject was just leaving premises accompanied by 3 women and 2 men, they walked to 79th Street and 2nd Avenue N.W. corner to the Abbazia Restaurant where they entered. The subject seemed to know most of the people inside. At 8:P.M. after they finished eating they all left and subject then proceeded to the Hungarian Restaurant on the S.E. corner of 79th Street and 2nd Avenue. Here he knew most everyone.

Operative discontinued at 9:30 P.M. and subject was still in restaurant. It is operatives belief that the subject he is trailing is not Hamorzsky

X